I hear people say that Christians need a crutch
That we run from pain and always pray too much
Do they really think it was easy for the man upon the cross
If He hadn't had the courage all the world would still be lost

It took a strong love
Strong love
To heal a heart like mine
So perfect by design

He was there to pay the price I could not pay
And He'll be there to plead my case on Judgment Day
In the moment of His agony He said a prayer for me
And with a cry that shook the earth below
He changed my destiny
