

WARM PLACE IN A COLD WORLD

Words and Music by Wayne Kirkpatrick and Amy Grant

Day is fading fast, the lights are heading past, I'm going home
The place I left behind is one that always finds me there alone
Everybody needs a shelter, everybody needs a place like mine

Found a warm place in a cold world
Got a strong case for stayin'
Found a warm place in a cold world
Here next to you

When I am old and wiser still no stranger to the chill of loves that fade
I know some give up with time and some are just inclined to walk away
Lovers leaving when the fire dies always wanting something new but I

Found a warm place in a cold world
Got a strong case for stayin'
Found a warm place in a cold world
Here next to you

Everybody needs a shelter
Ecerybody has a need like mine
