

SEE YA AT THE PARTY

©1990

See ya at the party
See ya at the party

Here's an open invitation to all who have ears
To the party of a lifetime at the end of your years
You can be on the guest list if you do one thing
Just R.S.V.P. to Jesus the King

The name of Jesus is our invitation
So let's go up to the celebration

See ya at the party
See ya at the party
See ya at the party
See ya at the party

Heaven's where it's happenin' so there's plenty of room
Got to invite your friends so they can skip their doom
We'll all be dancin' on a gold dance floor
Cause all of our problems will be checked at the door
Hangin' with the posse, rappin' with the songs
The party's crankin' up so come on along

See ya at the party
See ya at the party
See ya at the party
See ya at the party
Get a life and grab a friend
Here's one good time that will not end
