

PLEDGE TO PURITY

©1995 McSpadden-Smith Music

So many questions In this life that we live
So many choices we can make
So much surrounding us we cannot control
It's easy to make a mistake

Now we can give in
To all the pressure we feel
We could be led astray somehow
Or we can decide that we will take a firm stand
And make this solemn vow

I pledge my life
To do what's right
This is my sole security
Here in my heart
Both day and night
I'll make a pledge to purity

Now you may be thinking
That you're hopelessly lost
That you're just too far away
But it's never too late to try and turn things around
Just make this commitment today

We can shine a light
Through the darkest night
By the way that we live our lives
We can heal what's wrong
By standing strong In the face of compromise
