

I GOT YOU

Some say that I'm crazy
I'm acting like a fool
Some friends have betrayed me
Since I gave my love to you

But I'd rather wear their labels
Than live out some lie
To know all the answers
While peace is so hard to find

I've got you, whenever the storm clouds roll
I've got you, when love steals the joy in my soul
I've got you, when life is a bitter chill
I've got you, a light burning brighter even still

Some say that maybe It's a phase I'm going through
But their words deny their logic
When they say that I'm the fool
Faith, hope and love will never go away
Instead of getting angry
They will always have me say

I've learned that there are no rewards
For facing this lonely world alone
Philosophy and fiction won't change
The fact that you rose
I'm glad to know I've got you
