

LIVING IN THE LIGHT OF YOUR LOVE

©1993

I'm living
Living in the light of your love
Deeper than the deepest ocean
Higher than the stars above
Leading me somewhere
Out of the dark right from the start
All you give me is all that I want
To be living
Living in the light of your love

I remember stormy nights
Deep in desperation
I remember emptiness
That would not let me go

Till I found you now, somehow
Two hearts are one now
You and me soul to soul
The look in my eyes should let you know
