

IN MY PRAYERS TONIGHT

©1998 New Spring Publishing

While you're sleeping
God's angel's keeping a close watch over you
Rest your weary head and know
His love will see you through
Time tells me that love is all that remains
When time is gone
My love will comfort you until the dawn

Across the oceans, beyond the mountains
My prayers will follow you
No matter where the road may lead
I'll send you skies of blue
With you I'll always be
Even when I'm not by your side
For the best I can do, beyond loving you
Is in my prayers tonight

I've seen in my darkest hour what the power of prayer can do
Know that through the trials and tears
I'm here to hold onto
There's no way I could ever show you
How much I truly care
If you ever lose faith, I'll be there

Across the oceans, beyond the mountains
My prayers will follow you
No matter where the road may lead
I'll send you skies of blue
With you I'll always be
Even when I'm not by your side
For the best I can do, beyond loving you
Is in my prayers tonight

Every night when I'm through God knows I love you
'Cause you're in my prayers tonight
