

NOTHIN'S GONNA HOLD ME BACK

©1998 New Spring Publishing

Shadows of a broken man
Is no longer who I am I
've broken free can't
You see I really wanna be like
You Take away all my sin
To finally let me ship come in Drowning in
Your ocean of love
And I'm happy now
Lookin' what I used to be
I never really had a clue
"Til I gave up everything
In my way, on my way to You
I was holdin' on way too tight
Never livin' a real life
Now I know that You're the way to love
And that's a fact
Nothin's gonna hold me back
My friends think I'm kinda strange
Ever since I made the change
Even now I wonder why I always try to be like You
Now I'm livin' every single day
Make mistakes along the way
Though I let You down I always find
I can always count on You
