

THE WAY TO LOVE

©1998 New Spring Publishing

As I looked on while His mother cried
Why was this Man so willing to die
As He bowed His head the sky turned dark
The words He spoke pierced my heart
Now forever His blood covers me

Let it be - The way to love
As He laid down His life for me
You could almost hear the Father cry
Don't you see this is the way
The way to love
With my eyes closed I could clearly see
The love He displayed as He died for me
With a broken heart I walked away
Knowing the price that He paid
Now forever His blood covers me
Let it be – The way to love
As He laid down His life for me
Let it be – The way to love I must live as I truly believe
You could almost hear the Father cry
Don't you see this is the way
The way to love You could almost hear the Father cry
Don't you see this is the way
Can't you see He is the way
The way to love
