

RAIN LOVE

©1995

Threw out my old rain coat
Set sail without a boat
For places somewhere far beyond my dreams
As the sky came pouring down
I laid down on the ground
Like I was dreamin'
I let the feelin' wash all over me

Rain-Rain Love
Comin' down all around me
Rain-Rain Love
So glad You finally found me
Rain-Rain Love
Rain-Rain Love-Rain Love-Rain Love

It's the color of every sky
It's a wave to change the tide
When the world is crumblin' down 'round you and me
It's the calm that lifts the storm
It's the promise that keeps you warm
When you don't understand
Just trust the guiding hand that calms the sea
It falls like

Rain-Rain Love
Comin' down all around me
Rain-Rain Love
So glad You finally found me
Rain-Rain Love
Rain-Rain Love-Rain Love-Rain Love

It takes the rain to make you realize
No greater love could ever fill the skies
God's love's the only reason why
Rain-Rain Love
In time you gonna recognize
Rain-Rain Love
One drop can open your eyes
Rain-Rain Love Rain-Rain Love
