

I CHOOSE TO FOLLOW

Voices

I hear them calling for me to come away

Choices

I find them waiting for me with each new day

But when I start to listen

And obey the Voice that knows my heart

It comforts me to know how close You are

I choose to follow

I choose to let You lead

With child-like faith I'll walk each day

Knowing that You're all I need

I choose to love You

Because You've chosen me

Of all the things that I could choose to do

I choose to follow You.

Questions

You know they flood my mind when I kneel to pray

Lessons

I've learned from every answer You've brought my way

You patiently remind me

That it is by faith I must be led

Even though I don't know what's ahead
