

RIVER OF LIGHT

Another day...I'm feeling' down again
Where do I turn now that I need a friend
When I'm feeling lonely I look to the One and Only

River of Light
Drowning my sins forever
Pour over me with cleansing grace
River of Light Source of my inspiration
Carry me to a brighter place

Another night...tired of the games I play
Don't wanna keep chasin' this masquerade

I need somethin' better
Somethin' that lasts forever

I feel the white water surging thru my veins
I get down on my knees and it lifts me up again
