

THE LOVE WE KNOW

Was it you or was it me
What does it matter anyway
Let's forgive and forget who's to blame
'Cause building walls can tear us down
And here we draw the line
What we have is hard to find

We've gotta hang on to the love we know
Can't afford to let it go
Give the fire a steady glow
And hang on to the love we know

In a world of push and shove
Love is knocked around
Everybody needs a hide-a-way
I'll be yours and you'll be mine
And when the day is done
We will have somewhere to run

Got to hang on to the love we know
Let the love we know stay strong
Love is so few and far between, oh
We've got to hang on
