

UNDIVIDED

©2002 Hill Spring Music

On our own we stumble and we fall
But hand in hand we can tear down every wall
We will rest our weary spirit
In the shadow of one cross
Then we'll walk

Undivided
Stand united
He has called for every heart
To beat as one
We will praise Him
Glorify Him
With one voice sing, Christ is King
Undivided

Hearts will change and every knee shall bow
And every tongue will call his name out loud
He will gather all his nations and set each prisoner free
And then we'll be

Undivided
Stand united
He has called for every heart
To beat as one
We will praise Him
Glorify Him
With one voice sing, Christ is King
Undivided

To Christ we give the glory Lord of everything
When we blend our voices
All the angels sing
So let us sing
Undivided

Hallelujah, Hallelujah, Hallelujah
Hallelujah, Hallelujah, Hallelujah
Hallelujah, Hallelujah, Hallelujah
He has called for every heart
To beat as one

We will praise Him
Glorify Him
With one voice sing Christ is King
One true church
Forged by faith
Bound by love,
set in truth
Undivided
Hallelujah, Hallelujah, Hallelujah
